Abstract

This dissertation deals with the applicable law to copyright (The right of the author)

Hisham M. Al-Tahat

Mu'tah University, 2006

In order to determine the applicable law, this dissertation starts with examining the definition of "an author"and the legal nature of its right.

Then, the dissertation examines different methods of determining the applicable law.

These include, first the "substantive rules"method according to which rules prescribed by international conventions shoud be applied directly.

Asecond approach is the methodology of the conflict of laws.

This disseration argues that nature of copyright is manifold and therefore no single law can be easily held to apply solely to the issues irelating to this topic.
